

Corrected Amendments to Claims

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listing, of claims of the application:

Listing of Claims:

1. A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a device located ~~in the television~~ at and between the location of the originating television signal going from the television station to the television and the television signal receiver which varies or allows the variation of the perception as in a prescription for vision of the picture or image signal sent from the television station to a television signal receiver with the prescription ~~and then to the viewing screen in the signal being sent from the television station to the receiver.~~ in the signal being sent from the television station to the receiver.

2. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the vision prescription may not vary.

Claim 3. (deleted)

4. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 1, wherein the system may ~~not~~ be attached directly to a television and located between the originating television signal at the television station and the signal receiver.

5. A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: an eye-glass prescriptive signal delivering device that provides eye-glass prescriptive signals as in a prescription for vision of the pictures or images through manipulation of the original broadcasted television station signal going to a television receiver and is located at the television station ~~and similar entity~~ and between the television station and the television signal receiver.

6. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the vision prescription may not vary.

7. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the system may be attached directly to a television and located ~~and~~ between the television station and the television signal receiver.

8. The television picture or image enhancing system described in claim 5, wherein the system may not be attached directly to a television.

9. A television picture or image enhancing system comprising: a television screen that exists as a stand-alone prescription television signal broadcasting ~~receiving~~ and viewing surface.